

University of Hull
Centre for Legislative Studies

REDISCOVERING ONE-NATION CONSERVATISM: STANLEY BALDWIN – HIS LIFE, WORK AND LEGACY

10.00 – 17.00, THURSDAY, 10 SEPTEMBER 2026
COMMITTEE ROOM G, HOUSE OF LORDS

9.45 – 10.00 a.m. Arrival

10.00 – 11.30 a.m. PHILOSOPHY

Baldwin, Christianity and Conservatism
Daniel J. Pitt

Baldwinism: the Anglican fons et origo of the One Nation philosophy
Adrian Hilton

Stanley Baldwin and the economic foundation of One Nation Conservatism
Emmanuel Igwe

Rural England defending Britain: Baldwin, Eliot and the national benefits of a vision of locality
Ferenc Horcher

11.30 Refreshments

11.45 a.m. – 1.15 p.m. IN OFFICE

Baldwin and the General Strike: A One Nation approach to industrial relations
Josh Williams

Tactical triumph or asleep at the wheel? A critical analysis of Baldwin's stewardship during the General Strike
David Torrance

Baldwin's strategy and rhetoric in the national crisis and the National Government, June to November 1931
Stuart Ball

Baldwin and Social Policy
William Prescott

1.15 p.m. Lunch

2.00 – 3.15 p.m. MOBILISING POLITICAL SUPPORT

Baldwin and Parliament

Philip Norton

Reforming the raj 1932-1935: Taking a risk for unity

Adrian Phillips

3.15 p.m. Refreshments

3.30 – 4.45 p.m. AFTER OFFICE

Securing the Baldwinite succession: Party dissent, foreign policy, and 'National' politics, 1936-1939

Ewan Lawry

Stanley Baldwin as 1st Earl of Baldwin of Bewdley: an analysis in historical context

Rory Shankar

'Speaking to the man on the bridge and spitting on the deck': the post-prime ministership of Stanley Baldwin

Peter Just

4.45 p.m. CONCLUDING COMMENTS

5.00 p.m. CLOSE OF CONFERENCE