

Jan Kryciński - Sir Roger Scruton

Educating the Soul through Art

On the Political and Aesthetical Legacy of Sir Roger Scruton's Work

ONLINE CONFERENCE.....

Organized by

The University of Public Service (HU)

The University of Buckingham (UK)

Online through Zoom from Budapest and the UK, 1st October 2020

Register at: rip@uni-nke.hu

SESSION 1 (2 pm – 3.30 pm CEST): Scruton and the Great Tradition

Welcome by Bernát Török, director, EJRC (5')

Lecture by Ferenc Hörcher: Aristotelian or Platonic: On Roger Scruton's Philosophical Stance (40')

Response by James Hankins (20')

Discussion (25')

SESSION 2 (3.45 pm – 5.15 pm CEST): The Meaning of Art

Lecture by Raymond Tallis: Salvation Through Art (40')

Response by Alicja Gescinska (20')

Discussion (30')

SESSION 3 (5.30 pm – 7 pm CEST) : What Roger meant as a Teacher

Student 1 from HU: Zoltán Pető (15')

Student 2 from UK: Sebastian Morello (15')

Discussion with the two students (15')

Closing discussion with everyone (30')

Both discussions moderated by Fisher Derderian

Concert

Lorca Songs with pianist Katalin Csillagh and Kristi Bryson